

From the Desk of Executive Editor

---

(BIRDEM Med J 2020; 10, COVID Supplement: 136)

This peer reviewed journal is an important assortment of different articles related to various disciplines of medical and allied sciences. It welcomes original articles, review articles, meta-analysis, systematic reviews and case reports. It expects and appreciates the contribution of physicians and allied professionals of different medical/scientific institutions from home and abroad. Anyone can go through the articles by browsing www.birdemmedj.org. Our ISSN is (print 2305-3712, on-line 2305-3720). We are registered to Bangladesh Medical and Dental Council (BMDC) and enrolled to BanglaJOL. Authors can submit manuscript on-line. The statistics of our online viewers is enthusiastic and very much encouraging.

This is our COVID Supplement Issue and everything is with COVID-19. Coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) has jolted medical sciences and threatened the health facilities all over the world. Authors have exhibited their efforts, research interest and everyday dealing with COVID-19 over last one year period in this issue. Telemedicine, a reality in present pandemic situation, is the editorial in this issue. Endemic dengue is threatening our health and life during the pandemic of COVID-19. This has been added to the editorial also.

I am pleased to inform you that, three senior physicians agreed to join us as foreign editors. Dr. MA Jabbar MBBS, MD, FACP is Director of Pediatric Endocrinology, Diabetes and Metabolism, Department of Pediatrics/Hurley Medical Center, Associate Professor of Pediatrics, Michigan State University Program/ Hurley Medical center, Flint, Michigan (USA). Dr. Zahed Ikram, MRCP, FRCP is Consultant Physician and Geriatrician, St. Richard's Hospital, Chichester, UK. Prof. Shibendu Ghosh, Vice-President, Society of Tropical Medicine, Association of Physicians of India & Hypertension Society of India (Kolkata).

We feel tremendously buoyed by our readers' participation and their responses from all over the globe. We are very much thankful to our online readers. We also express our pristine appreciation and gratefulness to the authors who bolster our hope immensely and enrich the journal aptly with valuable articles. The editorial and advisory boards are eagerly looking forward to your valuable criticism, advices and recommendations to improve our endeavor.

Eagerly waiting for your new manuscripts.

Prof. Khwaja Nazim Uddin
Executive Editor
BIRDEM Medical Journal