

FROM THE DESK OF EXECUTIVE EDITOR

(Birdem Med J 2014; 4(1): 62)

This peer reviewed journal is an assortment of different articles related to various disciplines of medical science. It welcomes original articles, review articles, meta-analysis and systemic reviews, case reports from physicians and allied professions of different medical institutions from home and abroad. The web site of the journal (www.birdemmedj.org) can be browsed conveniently and the journal can be viewed online through Google and Yahoo. Its ISSN is Print: 2305-3712, online: 2305-3720. We have received official registration for the journal from Bangladesh Medical and Dental Council (BMDC). It has also been enrolled to banglajol. One can browse <http://banglajol.info/bd/index.php/BIRDEM/index> to find out an article by searching the title. Manuscript can now be submitted online. We are also enriched with system to record the number of online readers who have browsed and visited the journal from web site. This is surely very encouraging to us.

In the previous issue, we have highlighted the necessity of honoring ethics in medical profession in the much appreciated article titled “Ethical Values in Medicine”. In this issue, a similar article “Code of Medical Ethics: Guidelines of Bangladesh Medical and Dental Council” has been added for consummate conception.

We feel tremendously buoyed by our readers’ participation and their responses from all over the globe. We are very thankful to the online readers. We also express our pristine appreciation and gratefulness to the authors who bolster our hope immensely and enrich the journal aptly with valuable articles.

We eagerly look forward to your valuable advice, suggestions and recommendations in the future.
