

Postgraduate Courses and Training in Paediatrics at Bangladesh Shishu Hospital & Institute

1. BSH&I has course for FCPS in General Paediatrics (2nd part): Students can be registered twice in a year, in the month of January and July.
2. BSH&I is a recognized center by BCPS for training in FCPS (Paediatric Medicine and Surgery).
3. It is a recognized centre for course and training in different subspeciality of Paediatrics like Neonatology, Paediatric Nephrology, Paediatric Haematology and Oncology, Paediatric Pulmonology, Paediatric Neuroscience, Paediatric Cardiology, and Paediatric Critical Care.
4. There is MD Residency program in General Paediatrics, Neonatology, Paediatric Nephrology and MS Paediatric Surgery. Phase A commences in the month of March every year.
5. DCH course: Once in a year in the month of July.
6. Other courses conducted by BSH&I are:
 - Diploma in Nursing Science and Midwifery
 - BSc in Health Technology.
7. Training programme on Essential Newborn Care for doctors and nurses, KMC (Kangaroo Mother Care) training, ETAT (Emergency Triage, Assessment and Treatment) training, IMCI (Integrated management of childhood illness), newborn and paediatric standard use of oxygen therapy for hypoxemia management etc. are conducted by BSH&I.

DOI: <https://doi.org/10.3329/dshj.v41i1.93364>

Contact Person

Academic Coordinator

Bangladesh Shishu Hospital & Institute

Sher-e-Bangla Nagar, Dhaka, Bangladesh.

Phone No: 55059063, 55059064, 55059051-60, Ext. 411.

E-mail: info@bshi.gov.bd, info.bich@gmail.com